Armstrong Baseball Enters Collegiate Baseball DII Poll At No. 21

Posted: Apr 23, 2013

SAVANNAH, Ga. - Fresh off of a record-setting sweep of UNC Pembroke, the Armstrong Atlantic State University baseball squad entered the Collegiate Baseball DII Top 30 Coaches' Poll at No. 21 with Tuesday's release of the rankings.

The Pirates (27-12) have won their last four games, including taking three from then-No. 10 UNC Pembroke over the weekend - a series that garnered the 1,500th win in Armstrong baseball history as well as making head coach Joe Roberts the all-time winningest DII head coach.

Armstrong is one of five Peach Belt Conference schools that appear in the rankings as conference leader USC Aiken (37-9) is No. 3, while Lander (32-12) is tied for 10th. The Pirates will host Lander in a key three-game Peach Belt series this weekend beginning on Saturday. UNC Pembroke (32-14) tumbled to No. 21 after the sweep at the hands of the Pirates last week while Francis Marion and Georgia College are among teams receiving votes.

Armstrong returns to action on Wednesday, April 24, hosting Voorhees in a non-conference doubleheader beginning at 1:00 p.m. at Pirate Field.
